

The Glass
Society

Talk on Zoom
James Measell
The Carder Brothers at Wordsley School of Art

7pm BST, Tuesday 14 April 2026

The remarkable efforts of the Carder brothers—Frederick Carder and George J. Carder—are linked with the Wordsley School of Art as the school achieved and maintained its reputation for excellence in courses of study pertaining to glass and trained students for careers in the glass industry. As student, assistant art master and art master, the elder Carder established a foundation for instruction in art and the science of glass manufacturing that was carried forward by art master and principal George J. Carder after his brother immigrated to the United States to become associated with the Steuben Glass Works in 1903.

A Life Member of The Glass Society, James Measell is a trustee of the British Glass Foundation and an Honorary Research Fellow at the University of Birmingham. He is a frequent contributor to Glass Matters and The Blackcountryman.

The login details for the online talk will be sent out to members shortly and will be posted on the website <http://www.theglassociety.org>.

Next Meeting: Thursday 21st May